Speaker: Anne Labovitz: Artist, Public Artist, Arts Advocate, Fierce Anti-Racist, Fellow Human Being and Citizen of the World. <https://labovitz.com>

Labovitz's practice is centered on community, experiential art, and the use of emotive color. Her latest research found that creating and experiencing art calms our central nervous system. Yet, how do we facilitate this? Labovitz will explore how art and creativity positively impact well-being and promote empathy, while highlighting her research for The Nexus of Well-Being and Art exhibition.

Labovitz will also discuss her framework of Pedagogical Possibilities for Peace through Participatory Art, highlighting her project 122 Conversations: Person to Person, Art Beyond Borders currently on view at the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport.

This is a ticketed event, open to all NAEA Convention attendees.

Light Refreshments will be served.

Tickets are $60 ($50 tax deductible).

Tickets may be purchased at NAEA Convention Registration onsite in Minneapolis.

(tickets cannot be purchased at the door)

All proceeds will support the National Art Education Foundation, a 501(c)3 organization.
